

Why, How and What Oak Hill's Music Curriculum

Why

- Music is a universal language. It allows us to be creative both alone and in collaboration with others.
- It allows pupils to express themselves and develop their self-confidence.
- Singing is a wonderful way of bringing people together and supports our daily worship.

How

- We listen to and discuss the music we listen to.
- We use a variety of different instruments (predominantly percussion)
- We experiment with sounds.
- We experiment with different methods of writing and reading music.
- Singing a wide variety of songs both with and without musical accompaniment.

What

- Playing a variety of musical instruments.
- Listening and responding to a variety of different types of music.
- Trying out and looking at different methods of reading and writing music.
- Playing alongside others with both the same and different instruments.
- Singing a wide variety of songs together.
